“Knowing God’s Justice”

Psalm 112:1-10

Today’s BIG IDEA:

God will always reward what is right and punish what is wrong.

1. The _____ of the just (v.1-9)

- A just person finds joy in doing the right thing for a righteous God.

2. The _____ of the just (v.1-9)

A. The blessing of _____ (v.2)
(Proverbs 11:21)

B. The blessing of _____ (v.3a)
(Psalm 34:9-10)

C. The blessing of _____ (v.4a,5a,7-8)
(Proverbs 1:33)

D. The blessing of _____ (v.3b,6,9b)
(Matthew 7:19-20)

3. The _____ of the unjust (v.10a)

4. The _____ of the unjust (v.10b)
(2 Corinthians 5:10)

- No act of injustice will ultimately go unpunished.

5. Our _____ through Jesus

A. _____ the justice of God (v.1a)
(Romans 3:24-26)

- While God is completely just, he is also abundantly merciful, and he shows both these attributes on the cross.

B. _____ the justice of God (v.10b)

- When your circumstances tell you that God isn't just, God's Word confirms that he is.

C. _____ the justice of God (v.1-9)
(Micah 6:8)

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Have you ever seen someone act justly in a difficult situation and get blessed for it? How can this encourage us to live justly?
2. Do you ever question God's justice? Why? How can today's passage of Scripture give you hope?
3. What are some ways that you can exhibit justice in your everyday life? What will it cost? What will be the reward?
