“Knowing God's Mission”

Psalm 67:1-7

Today's BIG IDEA:

God blesses us so that he might be made known and praised among all nations.

1. God blesses us by _____ himself _____ to us personally.

- A. God is _____ (v. 1)
- B. God has _____ (v. 2)
(Revelation 7:9-10; Acts 4:12)
- C. God is _____ (v. 4)
(Acts 17:30-31)
- D. God is _____ (v. 4, 7)

2. God blesses us with _____ blessings.

- A. We can be confident of God's _____ (v. 6-7)
- B. God often blesses in _____ (v. 6)

The blessings of God are never meant to be ends in themselves. God's blessings turn attention back to Himself and serve a greater purpose.

3. God is seeking praise from _____.

“Missions is not the ultimate goal of the church. Worship is. Missions exists because worship doesn't. The Great Commission is first to “delight yourself in the Lord” (Ps. 37:4) and then to declare, “Let the nations be glad and sing for joy” (Ps. 67:4).”

John Piper, Let the Nations be Glad

- A. God blesses us to make himself _____ among the nations (v. 2)
- B. God blesses us to bring _____ to his name among the nations (v. 3-5)

“Nothing creates gladness so speedily, surely, and abidingly as the salvation of God.”

Charles Spurgeon, The Treasury of David

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

- 1. How might God be challenging you to pray differently in consideration of this Psalm?
- 2. Consider God's spiritual and material blessings in your life. How are you stewarding those blessings?
- 3. Where is your heart regarding God's mission in the world? Is God stirring your heart to pray, to give, to send, to support, or to go?
