“Knowing God’s Presence”

Psalm 84:1-12

Today’s BIG IDEA:

God invites us to know his presence, not just his principles.

1. God _____ us with his presence (v.1-2)

- Something is wrong when Christians long for a dying world rather than a living God.

2. God _____ us in his presence (v.3-4)

- If God welcomes the birds into his presence, then he surely welcomes us.

3. God _____ us with his presence (v.5-7)

- Sometimes we experience God's presence the strongest in trials rather than in triumphs.

4. God _____ with us in his presence (v.8-9)

- As a loving Father, God loves when we come to him with our needs.

5. God _____ us with his presence (v.10-12)

- “He who has God plus many other things has nothing more than he who has God alone.” – C.S. Lewis

(Application questions on back)

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Do you honestly feel the same longing for the presence of God that this psalm describes? If not, why not?
2. Are there any idols in your life that bring you more pleasure than God's presence? If so, how can you get your priorities in order?
3. How has God satisfied your heart as you have walked with him? How should this encourage you?
