“The Showdown at Jerusalem Junction”

Acts 5:1-16

Today's BIG IDEA:

Little sins are always a big deal.

1. The SITUATION

A. The _____ of Ananias (v.1-6)

B. The _____ for Sapphira (v.7-10)

C. The _____ in the church (v.11-16)

2. Some CLARIFICATIONS

A. This is not a fabled _____; it's a true _____

- The events of this passage are just as possible now as they were then.

B. This is not a mandate on _____; it's a warning about _____

C. This is not a reflection of the harshness of _____; it's a reflection of the harshness of _____

- Every sin we commit is fully deserving of the judgment Ananias and Sapphira experienced.

3. Some APPLICATIONS

A. We should give _____ and _____
(2 Corinthians 9:6-7)

B. Sin never stays _____, and it never stays _____
(Jeremiah 16:17)

- Sin always has a blast zone.

C. Addressing sin doesn't _____ a church; it _____ it
(James 5:16a)

- Churches often ignore sin because they are afraid of the fallout, but they should be more afraid of the fallout of ignoring it.

4. The INVITATION

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Is there any area of your life in which you are allowing secret sin to dwell? Confess it to the Lord, and repent.
2. What keeps us from confessing our sin to others? How can we overcome those barriers?
3. If we want to see our ministry succeed "more than ever" (v.14), what will it take?

Want to hear more messages that can give you encouragement and hope?
