Building the Kingdom Through Missions

The Browne Family

This week we're lifting up the Browne family, missionaries serving in Asia. We praise God for recent strategic meetings that have moved the mission forward in powerful ways.

We also lift prayers for a new church plant, smooth processing of residence permits, clarity and unity in the next steps to take, and peace over their children as they walk this road together as a family.

Please cover this family in prayer as they continue to carry the light of Christ to places all over the world.

Building the Kingdom Through Prayer

Lottie Moon—The Browne Family

As we kick off the Week of Prayer for International Missions and begin our Lottie Moon Christmas Offering, let's pause to remember what this is really about.

Missionaries like the Browne family are doing the unseen work of raising their kids in hard places, navigating political barriers, and faithfully sowing the Gospel in dry soil.

Pray that our hearts would be stirred to generosity and faithful prayer, not out of guilt, but out of a deep love for the lost and a desire to partner in what God is doing around the world.
