Pastor Matt Peek, FBC Moultrie

“Welcome to the Club”

Acts 9:19b-30

Today’s BIG IDEA:

Saul’s pattern should be our pattern.

1. We all need _____

_____ (v.19b)
(Galatians 1:15-18)

- Our conversion isn’t the end goal of discipleship. It’s the starting point.

2. We should engage in _____

_____ (v.20)

- You don’t need a permission slip or a degree to tell others about Jesus. You just need conviction and courage.

3. We will experience _____

_____ (v.21-22)
(1 Corinthians 15:9-10a)

- We silence our doubts by not being silent about Jesus.

4. We will face _____

_____ (v.23-25)
(Acts 9:16)

- As our faith and obedience to Christ increase, so will the opposition that we face.

5. We will notice _____

_____ (v.26-30)

One final word:

While we are called to a pattern of _____,
God always exhibits a pattern of _____.

(Application Questions on back)

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Are you actively involved in a process of discipleship? If not, why not? If you're not sure how to do this, contact one of the ministers, and we'll help you get started!
2. How have you seen today's pattern in your own Christian walk? Are there aspects of the pattern that aren't as evident? Why?
3. How is your life different now than it was before you knew Christ? How has this affected some of your former relationships? How can today's text encourage you?
