“Breakout Faith”

Acts 12:1-23

Today’s BIG IDEA:

In both suffering and success, look to God rather than yourself.

1. Have _____ when your world
is _____ (v. 1-5)
(Philippians 4:6)

- When life gets difficult, do you pray, or do you panic?

2. Have _____ when your way
looks _____ (v. 6-11)
(Philippians 4:7)

- If God can make a way for Peter, he can make a way for you.

3. Have _____ when your prayers are _____ (v. 12-17)
(James 1:6-8)

- The faith behind our prayers is just as important as the prayers themselves.

4. Have _____ when your praise
is _____ (v. 18-24)
(Proverbs 16:18; James 4:6)

- God can either break you out for his glory, or he can break you down in his wrath.

(Application questions on back)

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. Has God ever delivered you or someone you know from a time of great difficulty? How so? What should our response be to those acts of God?
2. Have you ever prayed for something but didn't really believe God would answer your prayer? What can you learn about this from today's message?
3. How might you resemble Herod? Is there an area of your life in which you are taking the credit instead of glorifying God? What needs to change?
