“Glow in the Dark”

Acts 17:16-21

Today's BIG IDEA:

A dark world needs us to shine the light of Jesus.

1. We must be _____ about the darkness (v.16)

(Romans 10:1)

- Our attitude concerning lost people will determine the efforts we make to reach them.

2. We must have _____ in the darkness (v.17)

(Romans 10:14)

- If we want to see people go from darkness to light, we have to tell them how to get there.

3. We must know the _____ of the darkness (v.18-21)

A. The _____ of lost people (v.18a)

- Epicureanism = the chief end of man is _____
- Stoicism = the chief end of man is _____

B. The _____ of lost people (v.18b) (2 Corinthians 4:4)

C. The _____ of lost people (v.19-21)

- The reason that more people aren't coming to faith isn't because they aren't interested in Jesus. It's because we're not telling them about him.

APPLICATION QUESTIONS:

1. How concerned are you about the lostness of the people around you? Does that “provoke” your heart as much as other things?
2. What is your “marketplace”? What places do you frequent where you can shine the light of Jesus?
3. How prepared are you to have a conversation about Jesus with someone? What's holding you back?
